3. It is the responsibility of the Event Host to monitor all musical works licenses at their Sanctioned Event. This includes verifying the music has been legally licensed and purchased by teams, clubs, schools, groups, and individuals competing in the event.

License Fees

1. SOCAN distributes the money collected to copyright owners in the form of a royalty ("SOCAN Fees").
2. Re:Sound is a Canadian not-for-profit music licensing company dedicated to obtaining fair compensation for artists and recording companies for their performance rights. The Copyright Board of Canada certifies the tariff to be paid by users of sound recordings in Canada under Re:Sound's Live Events Tariff ("Re:Sound Fees"), which applies to the use of recorded music accompanying live events such as athletic events, cheerleading competitions, conventions, and fairs.
3. The Event Host will be responsible to remit any SOCAN Fees, Re:Sound Fees or any such other applicable licensing fees (collectively the "License Fees"), if applicable, and/or will ensure that any License Fees are remitted by such persons who perform any musical works, as the case may be, in connection with the performance of any musical works at the Event Host's event.
